

Feature	Description	Data Type
Description	A textual description of the property. This provides additional details and characteristics about the property's features and qualities.	Text
Title	The title or headline associated with the property. This typically includes a concise and catchy phrase summarizing the property's key selling points.	Text
Location	The location where the property is situated. This provides information about the geographic area or neighborhood where the property can be found.	Text
Beds	The number of bedrooms in the property. This quantifies the sleeping spaces available in the property, providing an idea of its capacity.	Numeric
Baths	The number of bathrooms in the property. This quantifies the available bathrooms, including both full and half bathrooms.	Numeric
Toilets	The number of toilets in the property. This indicates the count of separate toilet facilities present, distinct from full bathrooms.	Numeric
Is_new	A binary indicator (1 for yes, 0 for no) of whether the property is new. This informs whether the property is recently constructed or not.	Boolean
Is_furnished	A binary indicator (1 for yes, 0 for no) of whether the property is furnished. This reveals whether the property comes with furniture and fittings.	Boolean
Is_serviced	A binary indicator (1 for yes, 0 for no) of whether the property is serviced. This indicates if additional services are provided, such as maintenance.	Boolean
Price	The price of the property. This specifies the monetary value at which the property is being offered for sale.	Numeric